It was a light, lovely winter for me (well, most of it) and I spent it reading at whim. Here are five books that stand out: A Little History of the World E.H. Gombrich. Gombrich is probably best known for his art history survey, The Story of Art, but he wrote this book before, in pre-Nazi Germany. When a textbook publisher hired him to translate a history book for kids, he thought it was so bad ...
